About the program

Well-being is a multidimensional concept that includes financial, social, and environmental wealth creation.

When the global business world replete with economically oriented announcements, social entrepreneurs bring perspectives to social trends. It highlights the key factors that promote social welfare or launching initiatives that improve living conditions in specific areas. Social entrepreneurs improve people's lives by spearheading essential projects that initially don't have a profit motive— even if these initiatives later bear economic fruit.

The international seminar on "Social entrepreneurship & its international implications" may focus on the scope of multi-nationalization of the concept of social entrepreneurship ideas for the sustainable development. It may also explore the role of social entrepreneurship research in the field of international entrepreneurship to affect global sustainable well-being.

The seminar will start after the Inauguration of Entrepreneurship Development activities 2022-23.

21.12.2022 GROUP DISCUSSION ON “WHY DRUGS”

As part of the campaign against drugs, a group discussion was organized in S3 Commerce. The student group’s discussed the problems of drug usage, its availability, the reasons for using it and also tried to identify the measures to reduce the usage and spread of drugs on campus.

All group leaders presented their findings. They identified that availability of more money leads to usage of drugs and strict control from the part of government authorities is the only way to control drugs in the campus. 28 students participated in the programme.
