Executive Summary

The Department of English, in association with IQAC, organized a session titled From Chaos to Clarity: Skills for Stress Management on 22 October 2025 at 10 a.m. in the Fr. Denaha Memorial Seminar Hall. The session was led by Ms. Reshma S, Jeevani Psychologist. The programme aimed at equipping students with practical strategies to manage stress effectively and to promote mental well-being among the student community.

Objectives

- To create awareness about stress and its impact on mental health
- To equip students with practical stress management techniques
- To promote emotional well-being and resilience
- To encourage healthy coping mechanisms among students

Expected Outcomes

- Improved understanding of stress and its triggers
- Development of practical coping strategies
- Enhanced emotional balance and clarity

- Promotion of a supportive and healthy academic environment

Number and Type of Participants

Students of the Department of English and other interested students of the college.

Contents

The programme commenced at 10 a.m. in the Fr. Denaha Memorial Seminar Hall. The session was handled by Ms. Reshma S, Jeevani Psychologist, who provided valuable insights into the causes and effects of stress among students. She discussed practical techniques such as time management, relaxation exercises, positive thinking, and emotional regulation strategies.

Interactive discussions and practical activities were conducted to help students identify their stress triggers and adopt effective coping mechanisms. The session was highly engaging and informative, enabling students to move from a state of confusion and anxiety towards clarity and self-awareness.

The programme was coordinated by Dr. Blessy John, HoD and IQAC Coordinator. The Principal, Dr. Biju A., extended support and encouragement for the successful conduct of the programme.

The programme commenced at 10.00 a.m. on 12 March 2026 at the Aprem Ramban Memorial Seminar Hall. The seminar was organized by the Department of English in association with IQAC of St. Stephen's College Pathanapuram.

The session was led by Dr. David Wesley, Assistant Professor of English, Madras Christian College, Chennai. In his talk, he introduced students to the origins, forms, and major traditions of Indian theatre, highlighting its connection with classical texts, folk performances, and modern dramatic movements. He explained how theatre functions as both a literary genre and a performative art, shaping cultural expression and social reflection. The seminar provided students with an opportunity to understand the historical development of Indian drama, the role of performance in storytelling, and the relevance of theatre in contemporary society.

The programme was conducted under the guidance of Dr. Blessy John, Head of the Department of English, and with the support of the Principal, Dr. Biju A and Ms. Jesna Mariyam Johnson, Assistant Professor, St. Cyril's College, Adoor. Faculty members of the department coordinated the event successfully.
